LOSES A WIFE AND FORTUNE.

And All Because New Yorker Lived in Seclusion Ten Years in Colorado.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) DENVER (Colo.) June 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Ten years ago Joseph Rickards left his wife in New York and came to Denver, where he lived in seclusion. Tiring of the West, Rickards returned to New York, where he learned that $500,000 had been willed to him years ago and that for five years attorneys had searched for him, at the end of which time the money had been paid over to charities. The fortune was left to Rickards by George Townley of Brooklyn, with the provision that in case he could not be located within five years it should go to charity. Rickards's wife, giving him up for dead, obtained a divorce three years ago and remarried.

In Lafayette a class in so-called Yoga philosophy. Many women and some men in the college town joined the class, which became the fad with certain highly-educated people. It was taught that the complete power of the Yoga involved "withdrawal" or separation from kindred and friends.

When last heard from President Stone's wife was in Germany, but it is reported she has gone to Khabon, a South Sea island, to join a colony of the new cult.

The Khabon colony is said to be one of the queerest in the world. It was founded several years ago by August Engelhardt and numbers less than a hundred persons. They live almost entirely on coconuts and the clothing they wear is of the variety and quality affected by the natives in the South Sea islands who have come in contact with the civilizing influence of missionaries. ## EMPIRE ORATORS FLOCKING TO LONDON FOR CORONATION FETES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LONDON, June 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Well to the front among the features of coronation week is the almost continuous flow of orators. Uniformly their speeches are keyed to a high note of imperial patriotism. Even Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the most reserved of the colonial premiers, who most of all fights shy of what he fears might prove embarrassing entanglements, is becoming enthusiastic over such forms of imperial concurrence as seem to him calculated really to promote imperial federation.

Australians, New Zealanders and South Africans, entering fervently the spirit of racial fellowship, demand complete local autonomy, but are eager to go forward with practical measures for imperial consolidation. As for the orators of Great Britain, without distinction of party they show that they regard the daughter states and colonies, as those terms are applied to the self-governing "dominions" which, by the way, is a word that is passing out of usage—that to the further interests of the mother country. In an important speech to the representatives of the empire to-night, Lord Rosebery dilated on the revitalizing influence of the overseas peoples, and institutions of the home land.

UNITY AND STRENGTH. "Unity," he said, "is everywhere the principle of strength. Unity is necessary among the diverse peoples of these islands. Unity is necessary among the scattered parts of the British family. Without unity Britain has indeed, reached that maximum growth of power which is wont to precede decline."

Lord Curzon made on of his greatest oratorical efforts of his career before the Empire Press Union. He held his vast audience of journalists enthralled. His rolling periods, gathering force and impressiveness, tended, broke over the listeners with thrilling effect. The speech, a splendid tribute to the press of the Empire, was incandescent with imperial ardour. After describing London as the present empire in microcosm, the speaker devoted a wonderful passage to the forthcoming scene in Westminster Abbey, when King George and Queen Mary are to be crowned.

"Pre-eminently," he said, "that ceremony, the only summing up of the history, tradition, poetry and romance of untold centuries, will be a religious ceremony. The King and Queen will make their ablutions to Almighty God. Religion will be the essence of the whole ceremony. Religion must ever remain the foundation and base of the empire."

BALFOUR'S SPEECH. Arthur Balfour's speech to the overseas premiers, if less sparkling, less spontaneous, less grave and glowing than that delivered by Lord Curzon, threw into high relief the same imperial goal. He said: "Unity, in that way lies perpetuity of our civilization. We find the greatest experiment in government that ever occupied the minds of a people. For my own part, realizing that progress must be slow and pain-

ENTERS LONDON IN GREAT STYLE

J. Hays Hammond Met by Royalty.

Dukes and Princes Welcome Special Embassy to the Coronation.

The King Distributes Honors With Free Hand as Part of Festivities.

Dr. Osler Is Made a Baronet. Curzon, Roseberry and Others in List.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

LONDON, June 19.—John Hays Hammond, accompanied by Mrs. Hammond and the special Embassy staff, made his official entry into London this afternoon.

Mr. Hammond was met at the railroad station by the Duke of Connaught, Crown Prince Christian of Denmark, Prince Alexander of Teck and other notables. The American party traveled to London in the royal saloon attached to a special train from Dover, where Baron Sandhurst welcomed them to England.

Whitehall said, the American Ambassador to the count of St. James, and Mrs. Reid, members of the American Embassy with their wives, John T. Griffiths, the American Consul-General, and members of the British staff were at the station to meet Mr. Hammond's party. The Hammond party then drove in a royal carriage to Stratton House.

Throughout the day special after special rolled into the different London railway termini, bringing in Princes, special Ambassadors and their suites from all points of the globe. The streets presented an attractive appearance with a constant coming and going of the royal carriages with their escorts, conveying the guests to Buckingham Palace and other palaces, and the private residences given over for the entertainment of visitors.

The night-long work of the array of decorations served to enliven most of the streets in the center of London. Flags gave a gala appearance which the intermittent rain storms could not spoil. The decorations and illuminations are on a scale never before attempted in England, and the demand for electric lighting is so great that the electrical companies have served public notice that their capacity to supply the current has been reached and that they cannot undertake lighting.

The German Crown Prince and party, Prince Henry of Prussia and Prince Henry of the Netherlands, were among this morning's arrivals. The Duke of Connaught and other members of the royal family fitted from station to station to meet each new comer, under the showers of mud that their swiftly moving vehicles tossed up.

The public appears smitten with the coronation fever. They throng the streets in such multitudes as make progress anywhere in the center of fashionable London a matter of difficulty.

The coming coronation of King George is signified by a free handed distribution of honors. In the last announced tonight the colonial premiers figure prominently.

Joseph C. Ward, Prime Minister of New Zealand, is proposed to a baronetcy. Andrew Fisher, Premier of Australia, and Sir Edward Morris, Premier of New Foundland, are made privy councillors.

The bestowal of a baronetcy upon Dr. William Osler, regius professor of medicine at Oxford, and formerly professor of medicine at Johns Hopkins University at Baltimore and McGill University at Montreal, is the most interesting item in the honor list to Americans and Canadians.

The Earl of Crewe, who was the Liberal leader in the House of Commons, Baron Knollys, the king's secretary, Baron Alendale and the Right Hon. Areta Akers Douglas, Unionist member of the House of Commons for Kent are made viscounts.

Several hundred decorations have been bestowed. Gen. Sir William G. Nicholson, chief of general staff, and Lord Methuen, who commanded the first division of the first army corps in the South African War, were tonight gassed field marshals.

BANKER IS INDICTED.
President of Shasta County Institution Charged With Misrepresenting Certificates of Deposit.
REDDING (Cal.) June 19.—The indictment against C. C. Bush, president of the Bank of Shasta County in connection with the bank's failure, was made public today, while the remaining two indictments are still kept on the secret file of the court. It is charged Bush in a published statement on January 7 said his certificates of deposit amounted to $222,873, when the sum in fact came only to $127,873. Bush is out on a $5000 bond.
F. K. Wendling, president of the Week Lumber Company, and J. E. Terry are before the grand jury today in connection with the $245,000 loan made by the bank of Terry. Wendling was served in San Francisco last Friday with a subpoena, after a search of three weeks by the officers.
Other indictments in connection with the bank's failure are expected.

CHAPTER THREE OF CONTROVERSY.
KERN VALLEY BANK CASHIER RETORTS IN KIND.
Charges His Critics With Abstracting Money From Bank With Worthless Paper and Suggests That Grand Jury Take the Matter Up and Fix the Responsibility.
BAKERSFIELD, June 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Declaring that the failure of the Kern Valley Bank is due to the frenzied finance of C. N. Beale, Fay C. Beale, H. A. Blodgett and their associates in the Sunset Road Oil Company, Ronald McDonald, cashier of the embarrassed institution, came back today with a 2000-word open letter answering the published charge of C. N. Beale that he (McDonald) was alone to blame for the bank's closing.
"Nine years ago, when I took the cashiership of the bank," says McDonald's statement, "I found in the bank a lot of worthless, unsecured paper, mostly notes of H. A. Blodgett and his associates, the greater of the bank's assets were in those notes. And what was that paper doing there?"
"It had been put in the bank in the place of money of the depositors; your money, gentlemen, where was that money? It had been abstracted from the bank. By whom? Me? No, by H. A. Blodgett, who Mr. Beale now says was instrumental in saving the bank after I became cashier."
The money, McDonald says, went to develop the Sunset Road oil property, and Beale, Blodgett and "their confederates" were the beneficiaries. McDonald says the bank could not have paid 20 cents on the dollar when he took charge. He suggests that the grand jury investigate the matter and fix the responsibility.

ANCIENT DEBT MUST BE PAID.
Man Who Passed a Worthless Check in Fresno Three Years Ago Is Sentenced.
FRESNO (Cal.) June 19.—Five years in Prison penitentiary was the sentence meted out by Judge Church this morning to John C. Meadows, who was convicted of issuing and passing a worthless check on the First National Bank of this city.
The crime was committed three years ago. Meadows appealed for parole but the appeal was ignored. After committing the crime Meadows fled the country and was not heard of until two months ago, when he appeared in his home town in Tennessee, where he was captured.

Ready Ear.
JUDGE HEARS AMAZING TALE.
LOS ANGELES WOMAN SEEKS DIVORCE IN RENO.
Tells the Court She Wedded Her Husband Under the Name of Henry and Learned from His Father She Had Been Deceived by a Drake.
RENO (Nev.) June 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Emmadale Drake, wife of Claude Drake of Los Angeles, told Judge French a remarkable story in court today on the hearing of her application for a divorce on grounds of non-support. The case was ordered submitted after evidence of not only failure to support, but of alleged fraud in the marriage, infidelity and of cruelty had been given by the young wife.
Mrs. Drake stated that she married Drake under the name of Henry and was confident that was his true name for a long time. He had said his parents were dead and she was not aware of the truth until her father personally appeared, informed her that her name was Drake and endeavored to persuade the husband to remarry her under the name of Drake. This, she said, the husband refused to do.
Mrs. Drake said she discovered the failure to contribute to her support was due partly to the fact that Drake was supporting another woman and her child. When she learned this and he refused to remarry her under his second name, she left him.
Numerous family councils participated in by the father and parents of the wife were related. Mrs. Drake admitted that her husband had agreed to give her a small sum per month. When asked how long his support was expected to continue she intimated that it was designed to cover the period of her sojourn as a resident of Reno. She admitted she had been obtained a divorce in California, but it was agreed upon by the couple that she should get her divorce in Reno.

EXPENSIVE BLAZE.
FRESNO, June 19.—Fire, believed to have been caused by a leaking still, completely destroyed the plant of the California-Fresno Oil Refining Company, south of this place, today. The loss is placed at $40,000.

SPANISH WAR FLAG PAWNED, OR SOLD.

Adjutant-General Wants to Know Who Did It.
And Forbes May Call Court-Martial to Find Out.
Color Scandal in California Militia Revealed.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
SACRAMENTO, June 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Gen. Forbes wants to know who "pocketed" the glorious colors of the Seventh Regiment, N.G.C., for $15. And he intends to find out, if it is necessary to call a court-martial for the purpose. The Adjutant-General of California intimated plainly today that he expects to institute an investigation into the circumstances surrounding the sale, or pawning, of the Spanish War flag of the Seventh after it was mustered out in 1899.
In order that the colors might be obtained to place them with other California war flags in the display cases at the Capitol, they had to be purchased at a cost of $25. Col. John R. Berry (retired) of Los Angeles, was colonel of the regiment at the time it was mustered out. Col. W. G. Schriber of Los Angeles, is present commander.
The first intimation that the colors were not in the hands of authorized people came about six weeks ago, when Adj. Gen. Forbes was in Los Angeles on his way to the maneuvers camps at San Diego.
He broached the matter to Col. Schriber, who informed him of having learned that they were in the hands of a man who refused to give them up unless he was paid $25, stating that he had paid $15 for them and considered the difference due for having kept them.
Adj. Gen. Forbes said today he does not know who the man is who bought the colors, nor does he know who sold them. Ordinarily, the flags should have been in the hands of the color sergeant of the regiment. If they were disposed of, it should have been in the knowledge of the commander of the regiment.
Should the case be prosecuted, court-martial proceedings will be had, in which case Col. Berry and the color sergeant of the regiment at the time it was mustered out in 1899 would be called upon as chief witnesses.
The colors arrived in Sacramento Friday last, and will be installed along with the other California war flags in the display cases on the second floor of the Capitol rotunda.

MUNICIPAL REFORM.
Tacoma Police Hourly Inspect Saloons While the Rest of City Is Without Protection.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
TACOMA (Wash.) June 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Hourly inspection of every saloon was begun today by the Tacoma police under instructions from Chief Fraser, acting by order of Mayor Seymour, who was elected as a reformer recently. Each police officer is required to go through every saloon on his beat every hour, day and night.
The order is exactly the reverse of what was in effect before the city was taken over by the police. At that time uniformed officers were told to remain out of saloons except in active application of ordinances or laws. The order prohibiting officers from accepting cigars in saloons still holds good, says the chief. While the police are devoted to their time to cafes and saloons citizens are complaining that the department pays no heed to complaints about lawlessness in the south end and that there are nightly depredations by roughs who commit robberies and interfere with social gatherings.
Complaints made to the Municipal Commission this morning was that a gang known as the "Center-street gang" is terrorizing the neighborhood.

SCHOOL TEACHERS DEPART.
Their Names Linked With Lodi Tragedy Both Leave, Though Re-elected to Their Positions.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
LODI (Cal.) June 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Miss E. M. Johnson and Miss E. McKinley, the two school teachers whose names were connected with the shooting of Charles Solars by R. B. Axell, the editor, have left here. After the auto accident, which is said to have led up to the murder, the School Board re-elected the two teachers and expressed confidence in them.
District Attorney Folts, on the day of the shooting attempted to get a statement from the two young women, but they refused to talk. Realizing that in all probability they would be summoned at the trial of Axell, they sent in their resignations and quietly left Lodi to avoid notoriety. Miss Johnson is a resident of St. Helena, and Miss McKinley's home is in Bakersfield.
The warrant charging Axell with murder will probably be sworn to by Mrs. Solars, widow of the murdered man, or A. J. Larsen, tomorrow.

KILLED IN A RUNAWAY.
New Yorker, Just Arrived in the Hood River Valley, Meets a Horrible Death.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
HOOD RIVER (Or.) June 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] W. H. Moody, of Upper Hood River Valley, met a horrible and sudden death this afternoon in a runaway accident a mile and a half south of Parkdale. Mr. Moody had accompanied his only son, Charles I. Moody, secretary of the Upper Valley Progressive Association, to a mill on business.
The son left his father seated in the buggy and while he was away the animal became frightened and dashed down the road before the occupant of the buggy, who was 65 years of age, could jump. At a sharp turn the buggy overturned and Mr. Moody was hurled to the ground. His jaw bones were crushed and his skull fractured.

STRIKES SETTLED ON A CASH BASIS

The Chicago Prosecutor Gets Wind of Case in Point.

Contractors and Bankers Are Called Before Jury.

Unionites Alleged to Have Mulcted Builders.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, June 19.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Charges that several union labor officials had extorted money from various contractors throughout the city were filed with Assistant State Attorney Victor Arnold today. Immediate preparations were made by the assistant prosecutor to take the evidence before the grand jury.

The union labor leaders are said to have mulcted the contractors out of thousands of dollars, in some cases settling jurisdictional strikes for money.

Fifteen contractors and other men who are said to know something about the alleged extortions, were subpoenaed, and some of them appeared in Mr. Arnold's office today and told their stories. Among them were three officials of the Harris Trust and Savings Bank—Howard W. Penton, treasurer; Edward P. Smith, secretary; and Frank R. Elliott, cashier.

The men are said to have talked to the Assistant Prosecutor in connection with the strike that was called on their new building. Just what transpired at the conference could not be learned.

Several of the contractors are said to have told Mr. Arnold that first of all the leaders of a certain union had sent them a letter regarding a new organization. The letters are said to have been ignored and calls in person made by the officials, and strikes followed.

Among the contractors summoned were those who are constructing the Karpen building and the Planters Hotel. In the latter building the Columbia Theater is situated. Yelle Brothers, the contractors who erected the Harris Trust and Savings Bank building, said they had not been asked to pay money. H. L. Wells, of that firm, declared he knew nothing about any strikes being settled by means of money.

He admitted that there had been trouble among the union steam fitters and plumbers at the building he is constructing.

Mr. Elliott, cashier of the Harris bank, said he was not in a position to know if any money was paid in settling any strike at that building.

WORKS BILL SLAMMED.

His Measure to Limit the Number of Saloons in District of Columbia Is Jolted.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 19.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Senator Work's bill limiting the number of saloons in the District has been dealt a severe blow. The District Commissioners today recommended adverse action on it.

The bill provides that no saloon should be maintained within the District of Columbia except on recognized business streets, that there shall

No limit is placed on the number of saloons in any one block. The commission is following the advice of William P. Richards, Assessor, who reported that one of the results of such a bill, if enacted, would be to increase the wholesale liquor houses to an enormous extent.

VALE, OLD MANSION.

Former Home of Governors of California Will Soon Be a Cheap Rooming-house.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SACRAMENTO (Cal.) June 19.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Sold for a trifle, and soon to be moved to a vacant lot, an old mansion which was Governor's residence for many years, will be turned into a rooming-house of the cheaper order.

The materials were brought around the Horn in a sailing vessel in the "Horn." It was one of the most imposing residences in the capital city in that day. Across the street lived Judge Terry at the time he killed Senator Broderick in duel. Besides being the home of California Governors for several years, it was the residence of many other distinguished citizens.

ONLY EIGHT YEARS OLD.

But Connecticut Boy Has Record of Crime Nearly as Long as a German Sonata.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

MANCHESTER (Cl.) June 19.—The police have a puzzling case in Edward Rudant, an 8-year-old boy who has confessed to a dozen carefully planned robberies. The lad is too young to be admitted to any institution in the State and he has not been arrested, although the police declare his extraordinary criminal tendencies make it unwise to allow him to be at large. The boy has been a constant source of annoyance to his neighbors for his brief lifetime and the police assert that his addition to the city has weakened his moral sense and he really does not know right from wrong.

Nose Pinched, Tragedy Followed.

GLOBE (Ariz.) June 19.—Robert H. Anderson, former city marshal, was placed on trial today for the murder of George Shanley, a prominent citizen of the Globe district, last March. Anderson and Shanley were together in a saloon. Shanley is said to have pinched the marshal's nose, and the shooting followed. The trial, it is expected, will be conducted tomorrow.

Walking 3000 miles from California to Nebraska, because he found no work on the Pacific Coast, Earl Schalk, 22, of the city of Chicago, Col., yesterday. The boy said he lived with an uncle in Bray, Cal., and declared he left home because a relative cursed him.

Young Man-What do you wish to Become

Every Young Man and Young Woman has ambitions of some sort. Each wants to "become" something. Many have definite ideas.

Whatever your plans—whether present or prospective—you actually are "becoming" something, though you may not realize it.

Nothing in nature ever stands still.

Each day your distance from the goal you have set grows greater, or grows less.

Upon each day's action depends what you actually will "become".

Now if money is needed for your advancement, what are you doing with your money every day?

Spending it for pleasure? Just to get the fleeting enjoyment that such spending brings?

Of course, this is your affair. But remember, you're not advancing. You're merely letting your goal get farther away.

Lots of people intend to save, but put off starting from day to day. Their goal is so far off, by and by, that they've lost sight of it.

So they never "get anywhere"—having no goal in sight.

The money essential to progress is most always piled up, little by little, in the "old-fashioned" saving way.

"Miracles" sometimes happen. "Rich Uncles" sometimes turn up. "Gushers" sometimes come in.

But how many have you known—within your own personal experience?

This Bank accepts Savings Deposits in sums of One Dollar, and upward. It pays Four Per Cent Compound Interest on such accounts.

On this basis, if you can save only One Dollar weekly, you'll have nearly Three Hundred Dollars in Five years' time.

Supposing you just "get right in" and put away Ten Dollars every month!

You'll have more than Seven Hundred Dollars in five years—enough to enable you to "become" what you desire—or start you well on the way.

Thousands of Common-sense Folks add to their savings accounts here week after week.

They're "becoming" stronger in character—better men and women—through the self-denial such saving represents.

And "becoming" potential Capitalists, too—placing themselves where they can meet opportunity more than half-way.

—what are you going to do about it?

Republican Opposition to Reciprocity Growing.

Threats Made by Foes to Join the Democrats.

Bailey Promises New Tariff If They Do So.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) WASHINGTON, June 19.—Republican opposition to the Canadian reciprocity bill in the Senate reached today the stage of open revolt today. Led by Senator Dixon of Montana, who said he would vote against the bill, the opposition was growing.

Senator Bailey of California, who had been expected to support the bill, said he would vote against it. He said he would vote against it because he believed it would be a "free market" while his constituents would be "protected" by the tariff.

PRIME THE STUMP. Herole Measure Advocated in One of Hawaiian Islands to Exterminate Mediterranean Fly.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) HONOLULU, June 19.—The embargo declared by California on all fruits produced in the Hawaiian Islands except bananas and pineapples will involve a heavy loss to the island growers and dealers.

The Mediterranean fly, most obnoxious pest known to fruit growers which has obtained a footing in Hawaiian orchards, is believed to have been brought here from Australia. Entomologists declare that the situation presents a grave menace to the fruit industry in the entire mainland. To exterminate the pest in Oahu, the only island affected, they advocate pruning the stump of every fruit tree during a period of two years.

Limitations of Present Legislation to Be Investigated by Congressmen. With Spanish War Record.

Desire to obtain full recognition of the pension claims of the dependent survivors of the Tenth Pennsylvania soldiers, who lost their lives in the Philippine campaign, has led Congressmen to make a detailed inquiry into the limitations of present pension legislation. His appointment on the House Pensions Committee has given him the opportunity to prove of official service to his Spanish War comrades, and they have been writing him regarding their interests.

"It will be necessary for amendment legislation by Congress before anything can be done for widows of Spanish War victims," said Col. Crago recently. "The Tenth Pennsylvania Regiment lost fifty men in its Philippine service and the widow of any soldier in that number cannot be provided for under the present rulings."

WASHINGTON AMAZED. BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES. WASHINGTON (D. C.) June 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Great surprise was manifested here when news of the resignation of the directors of the San Diego exposition was printed today. "This is likely to have a very bad effect on the attempt to get Congressional recognition for the exposition," said a friend of the enterprise. Col. Collier is not in the city, and nothing definite is known of the tangle at San Diego, but hopes are expressed that it will work out all right.

Each day your distance from the goal you have set grows greater, or grows less. Upon each day's action depends what you actually will "become".

Now if money is needed for your advancement, what are you doing with your money every day?

Spending it for pleasure? Just to get the fleeting enjoyment that such spending brings?

Of course, this is your affair. But remember, you're not advancing. You're merely letting your goal get farther away.

Lots of people intend to save, but put off starting from day to day. Their goal is so far off, by and by, that they've lost sight of it.

So they never "get anywhere"—having no goal in sight.

The money essential to progress is 'most always piled up, little by little, in the "old-fashioned" saving way.

"Miracles" sometimes happen. "Rich Uncles" sometimes turn up. "Cushers" sometimes come in.

But how many have you known—within your own personal experience?

This Bank accepts Savings Deposits in sums of One Dollar, and upward. It pays Four Per Cent Compound Interest on such accounts.

On this basis, if you can save only One Dollar weekly, you'll have nearly Three Hundred Dollars in Five years' time.

Supposing you just "get right in" and put away Ten Dollars every month!

You'll have more than Seven Hundred Dollars in five years—enough to enable you to "become" what you desire—or start you well on the way.

Thousands of Common-sense Folks add to their savings accounts here week after week.

They're "becoming" stronger in character—better men and women—through the self-denial such saving represents.

And "becoming" potential capitalists, too—placing themselves where they can meet opportunity more than half-way.

—what are you going to do about it?

REACHES STAGE OF OPEN REVOLT.

Republican Opposition to Reciprocity Growing.

Threats Made by Foes to Join the Democrats.

Bailey Promises New Tariff If They Do So.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Republican opposition to the Canadian reciprocity bill in the Senate reached the stage of open revolt today. Led by Senator Dixon of Montana, who again failed in his demand for an explanation, or a speech, in favor of the bill from some of the Republican leaders who championed the measure, the Republican opponents declared that if the bill passed, many Republicans would join the Democrats in an attempt to lower the duties on all manufactured products.

When the cornerstone is pulled out of the system of protective tariff, said Senator Dixon, "when the farmers' products are thrown into a free market while his purchases continue to be protected, there are many good protectionists in the Republican ranks here who will vote to have the duties pulled down on iron and steel, chemicals, cotton and many other things."

FIGHT PROMISED.

Other northwestern Republicans signified by their approval of the Montana Senator's words, that the passage of the reciprocity bill which, it is admitted, will have a majority in the Senate, will be attended with a fight that threatens to throw open the whole tariff subject.

"We want to make one killing," declared Senator Crawford of South Dakota. "We find the Senators from Pennsylvania, New York, Connecticut, Massachusetts and Maine, States that have always reaped the greatest harvest of protection, advocating this measure that proposes to put on the free list every single article raised in the Northwest. I want to deal with this matter in its entirety. If Pennsylvania, Mississippi and Massachusetts have joined hands in a new political propaganda, it is time for the rest of the country to strike out on a new track."

NEW TARIFF LAW.

"If you can get enough Senators on that side with you," returned Senator Bailey of Texas, "we will take one of these bills now coming over from the House and make a whole new tariff law out of it."

Senator Bailey declared there would be no adjournment until the Senate has acted upon the free list bill and the woolen bill.

Reciprocity came before the Senate today with the Root amendment, affecting the importation of pulp, wood and paper from Canada, as the matter for immediate consideration. This amendment was again laid aside, because of Senator Root's absence. Later he came into the chamber, but said he would not be ready to discuss the amendment until Wednesday.

Opponents of the bill then demanded an explanation, or speech, from some one in favor of the measure.

Mr. Cummins said he wanted to speak against the Root amendment, but would not do so when that amendment was not officially before the Senate, and had not been explained. Senator Dixon, a Senator Bailey, Senator Smith of Michigan, and others, declared they would make no speeches against the bill until they had heard some word on its support.

CHICAGO SPEECH.

President Taft's Chicago speech in support of Canadian reciprocity and against the Root amendment came in for criticism. Senator Root, in answering that he would speak Wednesday in support of his amendment, said he would decline to discuss the President's public objections to it. He said that in questions so vital to the Senate, he did not believe newspaper reports of the President's remarks should be the subject of debate. "If it is not proper for us to discuss what the President has said," said Senator Bailey, "it is time we leave it. It will be a long time before I will admit that the President can traverse the country, discuss matters, and still be exempt from replies on the floor of the Senate."

PRIME THE STUMP.

Herole Measure Advocated in One of Hawaiian Islands to Exterminate Mediterranean Fly. (ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) HONOLULU, June 19.—The embargo declared by California on all fruits produced in the Hawaiian Islands except bananas and pineapples will involve a heavy loss to the island growers and dealers.

The Mediterranean fly, most obnoxious pest known to fruit growers which has obtained a footing in Hawaiian orchards, is believed to have been brought here from Australia. Entomologists declare that the situation presents a grave menace to the fruit industry in the entire mainland. To exterminate the pest in Oahu, the only island affected, they advocate pruning the stump of every fruit tree during a period of two years.

PENSION LAWS INQUIRY.

Limitations of Present Legislation to Be Investigated by Congressmen With Spanish War Record. Desire to obtain a just recognition of the pension claims of the dependent survivors of the Tenth Pennsylvania soldiers, who lost their lives in the Philippine campaign, has led Congressmen to make a detailed inquiry into the limitations of present pension legislation. His appointment on the House Pensions Committee has given him the opportunity to prove official service to Spanish War comrades, and they have been writing him regarding their interests.

"It will be necessary for amendatory legislation by Congress before anything can be done for widows of Spanish War victims," said Col. Crago recently. "The Tenth Pennsylvania Regiment lost fifty men in its Philippine service and the widow of any soldier in that number cannot be provided for under the present rulings."

WASHINGTON MUZZLED.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) WASHINGTON (D. C.) June 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Great surprise was manifested here when news of the resignation of the directors of the San Diego exposition was printed today. "This is likely to have a very bad effect on the attempt to get Congressional recognition for the exposition," said a friend of the enterprise. Col. Coit is not in the city, and nothing definite is known of the struggle at San Diego, but hopes are expressed that it will work out all right.

BY GREY OLIVER.
Vernon, 4; Portland, 2.
Wash day games do not amount to much anyway, but at that a good-sized crowd of fans saw the Tigers beat the champions yesterday in very easy fashion in the only off-day game of the league. It was a fine exhibition of the problem of amusement and the fans got a lot out of the contest.
The locals simply got to Dennis Henderson before he could get away and when he did break loose after the third inning they had all the runs they needed to win with. At that they could not have made any more if they cried their eyes out for McGreevey worked his new bush college pitcher, Henkel, on them and none of them could get to second base in the final five innings of the game. This Henkel is a real live one and the chances are that he will make a lot of the teams look like dunces before this season is very far advanced.
Aside from the appearance of Henkel the real feature of the game was the banishment of Hap Hogan from the game or rather from the third base coaching line and the fine of $10 that McGreevey soaked him with. Hap rushed over to third base in the fourth inning to help some of his men get some runs and started his remarks with the loud statement that he loved Henkel and that he was all right.
McGreevey stood for this about two minutes and then ordered Hap to go and sit on the bench. As Hogan walked to the plate on the way to the bench he desired very much to know what was the matter with McGreevey for throwing him off the coaching line.
Hogan's words were not couched in the best language and the ump promptly fined Hap $10 and ordered him from the park, but he didn't go.
HE MAKES GOOD.
Castleton seemed to have everything yesterday and was altogether different from his condition last Saturday when he walked five men in the first inning. He was never in trouble and the only time he was bothered was in the fifth when the champions got their two easy runs. Sheehan and Peckinpah singled to left, advanced a base on Murray's infield out and scored on Chadbourne's triple to center. After that inning but one man got to second base and but three reached first base. This kind of hearing does not give up many runs.
Henderson began bad right off the bat, for only a fast fielder like Castleton could have grabbed Carlie's fly to center. Hen walked Kane and then Patterson hit for a double over third base that scored Kane. In the second with two out Brown and Castleton singled to left, Carlie was hit by pitcher and Henderson forced a line run by walking Kane. A pass, sacrifice and two singles made two easy runs in the third and these were enough to retire Henderson to the bench.
The only two fielding features of the game, aside from the fielding of Peckinpah, were McDonnell's left-handed catch of Rapp's fly to right

Miss Guinan is commodore of the Venice surf-board fleet, and a wonderful mistress of the tropical substitute for a bobbed and a hill full of snow.

VENICE GIRLS RIDE SURF-BOARDS WITH AS MUCH SKILL AS BOYS.
BY LAURIE JOHNSON.
THE Venice girls are taking to surf-boarding riding.
Heretofore only the summer boys have attempted to quell these Neptunian bronks, but now the dauntless young surf-riders of Kinnerton seem bound that no mere man shall beat them at anything.
Is there anything in the out-of-door sporting life that looks more simple?
Yet it takes weeks for one to learn merely to stay right side up, either with or without care, and for proficiency and expertise, months are required.
It's not a question of strength, but of skill.
Yesterday I saw a brave young man with piano legs and pile-driver arms do a double back somersault when merely trying to get one—it kicked at him just like a wicked pony—while a little boy built like a wasp rode the same board all over the place about five minutes later.
Old ocean furnishes the motive power. Don't ever attempt to supply that yourself, for pity's sake!
Bill Aldridge, of the Venice Lite-aving crew, has a few touching personal reminiscences about what a malicious surf-board can do to you when you least expect it.
To begin with, do you know what a surf-board is?
No?
Well, the best sort are made of redwood, they are from eight to ten feet long, two inches thick, and weigh from forty to fifty pounds. The front, or bow, is fully two feet wide, tapering to not more than eighteen inches at the rear—or stern.
Very few people have any idea of the size of real surf-boards.
But there are the dimensions, so the next time you see a gay youth cornered down with mamma's ironing-board, just don't believe it.
It isn't true.
You stand just as much chance of being thrown from the ocean bronk as you do from the desert bronk, but it must be admitted that here the "lighting" is a little softer.
First, you float the board out, its stern pointing toward Tokohama, and watch for a good-sized swell, just about to break.
That's the surfological moment.
Just before the force of the wave is spent, jump on, well towards the front, and as the wave catches you, slide toward the foot—this is to balance it so that the curved snout will rise slightly out of the water. That's

IN EIGHT ROUNDS.
Mandot Is Given Decision
in Memphis Bout.
Joe Rivers's Next Opponent
Takes Nine Seconds.
McCarey Not Certain What
He Will Do Today.

Tom McCarey said last night:
"I really do not know what to think about Coster's defeat and cannot decide whether or not we could use him here with Rivers until I read the account of the fight. It's tough luck and I am not much surprised, for I know this Mandot is a tough boy. I think Coster must have been tired from his long train ride to the South."
"I have no one in sight to meet Rivers on July 4 as we should decide not to use Coster. I know Coster is a good boy and there must have been something wrong with him."

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
MEMPHIS (Tenn.) June 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After taking the full count in the second round of an eight-round bout tonight before the Southern A. C., Joe Coster, the eastern boxer, fought gamely through to the end, but lost the decision to George Mandot of New Orleans. For Coster's lip was split in the first round, his eye was partly closed in the third round, and he suffered a second knockdown in the sixth. Only in the fifth and last rounds did Coster live up to the reputation that made him enter the ring a hot favorite in the betting.
Mandot, however, finished without a scratch practically, and forced the fight most of the way, although Coster rarely backed up. The knock-down in the second came as the boys parted in a clinch. Mandot crossed with his right to the jaw and followed with a left jab that sent Coster reeling to the ropes. He remained down, taking the full count, but covered up cleverly until the gong sounded.
Mandot tried hard to win with a single punch in this round, but the easterly remained cool and listened attentively to the coaching of his manager to keep away.
The boys weighed in at 4 p.m., both agreeing to do 125 pounds. Coster did not tip the beam. Mandot half slight advantage in ring-side weight, also height and reach. In behalf of Mandot, a challenge was issued after the bout to any 125-pounder in the world. After the bout Referee Haack said that Mandot had the better of six rounds, in addition to scoring two clean-cut knockdowns.
Jimmy Johnson, Coster's manager, however, protested vigorously, and claimed at least a draw. He had no excuse to offer for what the southern fight fans classed a "disappointing performance," from Coster, and said they did not think the loss of a decision would interfere with the Coster-Rivers affair at Los Angeles July 4.
Before the bout Johnson signed with D. J. Tortorich, representing the West Side A. C. of New Orleans, for a twenty-round match in New Orleans
the first week in September with Abe Atell at the featherweight limit.
Meantime Coster, accompanied by his manager, leaves for the Coast Tuesday, via Kansas City, to finish training for the Mexican, Rivers.

JONES DECLARES WOLCAST RIGHT.

Says Champion Was Never as Good As Now.

Ad Is to Leave Here for North Next Thursday.

Kirkwood Hopes to Get One In Election Bouts.

BY GARY OLIVER.

Tom Jones, manager of Champion Ad Wolcast, arrived in town yesterday morning from Wheeler Springs on his way to San Francisco, for which point he left last night. Tom intends to remain in the big city until the Wolcast fight on July 4. Wolcast is to go north next Thursday to begin training.

Jones says that Ad never looked better in his life and that he is as strong as a bull. He is as brown as a Mexican and is the picture of health in every way. For several weeks he has been training at the hills at the springs and Jones declares he is a different boy than the one seen several weeks ago. He has naturally taken on a little weight, but it is in the way of building up his constitution, and not in fat. He seems as strong as a bull, and is quick and active and stands the wear and tear of hill climbing as if he had been reared in the mountains.

Nothing seems to fatigue him and Jones says that the fight bugs will see a new Wolcast when he gets into the ring with Moran. He is bigger away from the hills and Jones adds that this experience in the hills has been the best kind of training Wolcast has ever had and he has not done a lick of what is called regular training for a year. There has been no thought of boxing or gym stunts of any kind for Ad considers he is on a vacation and has just been laying around.

Jones is inclined to be very sarcastic about the anxiety of the San Francisco fight promoters to get Wolcast up there so he can be seen by the fight bugs, but Tom is taking his time about getting his boy on the battle ground. For he figures rightly that a champion does not need to be advertised. Moran is the one who needs the advertising. Wolcast has fought every one that his manager has asked him to meet and he has never been beaten by any opponent, taking them as they came. This shows that he is a real champion and willing to meet every one.

KIRKWOOD HERE.

George Kirkwood, the boy who fought Joe Rivers a four-round draw in San Francisco recently, left yesterday afternoon for St. Louis on private business. He had a conference with Manager McCarey of the local club before he left, but there was nothing promised him, for there is nothing in sight just at present. The Rivers-Cotter fight on July 4 and the Kline-Kilbane contest on July 15 fill up the local dates for the next month, and McCarey is willing to wait until after the latter bout before making any more matches. Kirkwood looks like a fighter and the fact that he knocked Rivers down and beat him the better of him in four rounds, shows that he is far from being a slouch. He is very willing to fight Rivers and intends to come back with the expectation of getting on with some of the boys that McCarey intends to try out in the next two months.

Freddie Welsh and Matty Baldwin are to fight in San Francisco Friday night and Wolcast will be one of the spectators at the ring side. Just wishes to see how these two fight and how the night boxing is going to turn out. Welsh, Ad would probably find Freddie a very tough one, but the Englishman hardly has the stamina to go a route with Wolcast.

Patsy Kline is scheduled to leave New York for Los Angeles next Monday and should arrive the day after next week. He is a very good boy and on the depe should put up a smashing fight with Kilbane. It appears that the local bugs are in for a series of what should prove the best bouts in the country this summer.

Joe Cameron, the negro heavyweight, was around the fight grounds yesterday looking for a match with only one that McCarey can get for him. Here is a chance for Jim Flynn, if his bout with Morris is called off for July 4. Flynn, however, is not very anxious to tackle the big smoke.

BANNING SELECTED AS JUNCTION POINT.

BANNING, June 19.—By an arrangement completed between various transportation companies and the Auto Club of Southern California, Banning has been designated as the junction point for motorists making trips from coast cities to Idyllwild. The new mountain road between Idyllwild and Banning is in use for the first time this year, and it is considered one of the best mountain roads in the State, both in point of engineering and fine scenery.

The Southern Pacific Company, by reason of the building of the auto road from Banning, will now compete with the Santa Fe for traffic, which has heretofore been diverted to San Jacinto and Hemet.

The rush of autos has already begun, but the formal opening of the new road will take place June 29, at which time it is expected that many auto enthusiasts will make their initial trip over the mountain road.

MACKEREL PLENTIFUL OUTSIDE SAN PEDRO.

"Corn fed" mackerel of large size have been running at Idyllwild in the channel of San Pedro for several days and the Italian market fishermen have been catching them in considerable numbers. The fish are prime at this season, and will take the proper bait voraciously if offered them at the end of a line. The small fish are scarce and the large ones are the ones that are being caught by the fishermen. The mackerel usually are schooling offshore early in the morning and making a mess of the anchovy bait, being located by the peculiar rattle they make upon the water in the course of their frantic feeding operations. Up toward Portuguese Bend is a favorite place for them.

BALL PLAYERS SCRAP OVER MUSH SPHERE.

(Special Correspondence of The Times.)

SAN BERNARDINO, June 19.—William Dorsey, captain of the Urbana Stars and well known throughout the State as a baseball player, is booked at the County Jail charged with assault upon another player, named Tracy.

The game played in a game at Urbana, as part of a Sunday attraction, and difficulties over a baseball resulted in the charges against Dorsey.

The men claim that some one tried to rush in a "mush" ball on the players. This is a ball that has "phony" instincts, and is on a par with "loaded" dice or a "packed" deck of cards.

The umpire refused to allow the ball to be used and threw it out. Tracy aided in getting rid of the ball by throwing it over the fence.

This act, or something not at present made public, inspired Dorsey to attack Tracy. Witnesses claim Dorsey picked up a rock and struck Tracy with this. Tracy was knocked out and Dorsey was compelled to beat a hasty retreat to prevent severe handling at the hands of a mob of fans.

Dorsey first fled into the office of the Urbana Springs Company, the officers having been beating the mob which raced after him. He was finally smuggled by the officers to the second floor of the plunge building, where Deputy Sheriff, police and deputy constables stood guard for hours to prevent threatened violence.

Dorsey, using a rock, and says he struck Tracy with his clenched fist.

Detroit Signs Collegians.

DETROIT (Mich.) June 19.—Four more college men have been signed by the Detroit Baseball Club. They are Catcher George F. Wilson of Bowdoin; pitcher, E. J. Ford, another eastern collegian; third baseman, Lundstrom of the University of Idaho and outfielder, J. F. McDonald of Vermont University. Harold Kling, a brother of Catcher John Kling of the Boston Nationals, recently signed will be turned over to Buffalo.

Wagner May Play First.

PITTSBURGH, June 19.—It became known today that the Pittsburgh Club has protested the game won by Boston, 8 to 7 in this city last Thursday night, because of a decision rendered by the field umpire should have been made by the umpire in Detroit, while the "Wagner" boys were in the best condition, and from the first ball to the last, kept the crowd yelling with excitement.

Four hundred delegates gathered in Birmingham last night for the annual convention of the National Association of Professional Baseball Players. The delegates are to meet at the Golden Seal. Business of vital interest to the order will come up for discussion.

FORTY PINK IMMORTALS.

NO. 9, MR. WALLACE BRAY.

SOME persons imagine that to be a ball player a man has to be born in a ball park and that you have to be trained daily with bats and maces in order to be able to do some helpless manager into the idea that you know something about baseball.

This is as much of a joke as the idea that you have to know how to cook for a cafeteria before you can eat.

Nothing seems to fatigue him and Jones says that the fight bugs will see a new Wolcast when he gets into the ring with Moran. He is bigger away from the hills and Jones adds that this experience in the hills has been the best kind of training Wolcast has ever had and he has not done a lick of what is called regular training for a year. There has been no thought of boxing or gym stunts of any kind for Ad considers he is on a vacation and has just been laying around.

SEALS ARE HOSPITAL SUBJECTS AFTER VISIT TO SACRAMENTO.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO (Cal.) June 19.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The Seals, except pitchers Browning and Zamlock, started for Los Angeles this afternoon to tangle up with the Vernon Tigers tomorrow.

The players were not in very good shape after their week's experience with the intense heat at Sacramento, but they celebrated pay day today and departed in fairly good spirits.

The weather at the capital city came near proving disastrous to the line-up. The players were completely exhausted after the double-header Sunday and have hardly recovered yet.

Kid Mohler was taken sick during the first inning of the afternoon game, and only stuck in the fray on his gameness. Royal Shaw was troubled with fainting spells on the train. Walter Schmidt caught cold. Powell's legs bothered him. McArdle suffered a nose bleed, and all the pitchers complained of feeling the effects of exerting themselves in the heat.

Another series at Sacramento would have finished up all the boys, with a longer hospital report.

Oscar Vitt and George Weaver, the cripples, will be back in the game this week. Vitt is slated for third base tomorrow, which will shore Shaw to the outfield, and Melchior on the bench, and Weaver expects to break into the lineup by Thursday. Harry Sutor, or Clarence Henley, are carded to work in the opening contest.

Heine Melchior, the hard-hitting right fielder, is in bad with Manager Long. He was guilty of poor base running on several occasions at Sacramento, and when he spoiled a rally by getting caught off first in the Sunday afternoon game, Manager Long plastered a $10 fine on him, with the warning that if he did not get into the game with full attention to business he will be fined again.

Both the Sacramento and St. Louis diamonds are hard on the players. The infield at Sacramento is fast and true, but the outfield is uneven and covered with high grass, which greatly interferes with fast fielding. The park at St. Louis is not better properly kept, and the management has promised to make improvements. The outfield is filled with squirrel holes, as Melchior will tell you, and the infield is little better.

COBB LEADS LEAGUE IN EVERY RESPECT.

CHICAGO, June 19.—Ty Cobb of the Detroit American League Club is the first major league player to drive out of the hundred times in the 1911 season. His century hit came in the eighth inning of yesterday's game with Chicago, in Detroit. Not only did he get the hit, but he also won the game for the day, he raised his total to 101 with another safe one in the ninth.

Batting is not the only division in which Cobb leads. The twenty doubles, twenty triples and eight home runs make him the chief of the slugger; his thirty steals, put him at the head among base stealers, and his record of fifty-nine runs in fifty-five games has his opponents beaten by a wide margin. The following shows Cobb's work so far this season:

Games, 55; at bat, 232; runs, 59; home runs, 10; stolen bases, 30; sacrifice hits, 8; total bases, 181; average, .445.

ANECDOTES OF GREAT FIGHTERS. NO. 8—INITIATING A DUDE.

ANECDOTES OF GREAT FIGHTERS.
NO. 8—INITIATING A DUDE.
BY CARROLL VAN COURT.

Percy Loring was never known to exercise in the gym. He had money, fine clothes, a plug hat, cane, gloves, and a monocle. In fact, he was just like the dude you read about in the funny papers. He used to tell who a great athlete he was, but no one ever saw him do anything.

In the Olympic Club of San Francisco the boys had a way of initiating new members that always created much amusement.

He had a large canvas blanket, twenty feet long and fifteen feet wide, with strong rope handles every two feet, along the edges. When a new member appeared for the first time on the floor the whole class would grab him and toss him in the net. For forty ten minutes you could see nothing but a tangle of hair, legs and arms, with the crowd yelling encouragement, cane, gloves, and a monocle. In fact, to the victim.

Once a month was ladies' day, and the members would bring up their sisters, and other fellow's sisters, to see the classes at work.

One ladies' day there was an extra large crowd of people looking on and a good bunch of the boys were in the gym. They had the canvas net out and were tossing volunteers up in it to amuse the women. Old Ben Bogner, a professional clown, was evoking shrieks of laughter from the girls by his antics. Just above the net was a hanging trapeze and the boys would toss Ben up to it. He would catch hold of it with one hand, imitate the tricks of a baboon and make faces till the crowd shouted with delight.

Jimmy Britt and Al Kaufman were also around the net helping in the fun. Enter Percy Loring with two well-dressed queens on his arms. He wore his plug hat, cane, gloves, dress suit and monocle. He escorted the ladies around, explaining the different apparatus to them, and telling in unbecomingly loud tones, what a performer he was in this branch or that branch of athletics and how clever he was on the apparatus, etc., etc., and all that sort of rot, double rot.

Britt and Kaufman heard him and it disgusted them so that they got three or four husky wrestlers to one side and untold to them a plan to punish Percy's enervation of the noodle. Without attracting attention they strolled near Percy, seemingly engaged in a friendly argument about some piece of apparatus or other. At a signal from Jimmy Britt, the five husky wrestlers, with Britt and Kaufman, grabbed Percy by the neck of his swallow-tail coat and the seat of his trousers and ran him over and dumped him into the net.

Up went hat, gloves, Percy and monocle. The cane took a neat dive clear up to the balcony, and his plug hat flattened out on his return trip down. "Ah, what a fall was there, brother!" His gloves went north, the monocle east, his cane south, and Percy, dead boy, went all directions at once. His feet went up, his head down, then his head went up and his feet dangled, then he soared up, spread out like a bat and came down flat on his stomach.

"Go to it, Percy," somebody yelled. "I love every bone in your head!" Another shouted, "Toss him higher, you can't hurt him, his head is solid ivory." And the women, oh rapture! they laughed, cried, shrieked and screamed, accompanied by the delighted haws of the members who knew Percy's bad habit. The boys tossed him for twenty minutes or more, until they were so weak from laughing that they had no more strength.

Finally they let him out and he collected his scattered remains and sneaked. You could hear those two girls scream all the way to the front door, for they left without waiting for Percy.

Never again did Percy delight the ears of his listeners with tales of his prowess in the gymnasium. In fact, he resigned his membership the next week.

Mexico High School has a fine record for the last school year. It boasts of the Southern California championship, having beaten Los Angeles High.

Golfers at the Los Angeles Country Club have not as yet recovered from the shock they received when "Dusty" Miller turned in his bum card in the Morris play. Eleven down! Rotten! The next day he disappeared. "Dusty" Miller, why didn't you show that form when you were playing in memory of dear old Tom!

"Judge" Frederickson, in the Morris play, turned in exactly what was expected of him, leading the team with four down. "Jack" Jevne only fell down one notch, being doped for five green and finishing with six.

F. P. Bull flashed a single-barrel gun at the Los Angeles Country Club Sunday that made everybody sit up and take notice. None called it "Cucamonga Special." As a matter of fact, it was an old-time product of the Royal Gun Company. But it certainly chewed up the birds.

Ed Mitchell, who won first in the shoot at Modona, is showing a much-class that he is gradually being moved back to the twenty-one-yard line—limit—the handicap—shoot at the Los Angeles Club. He is now on the nineteen-yard line and moving fast.

F. G. Woods and F. S. Wade Saturday, are to play off the tie in which they got tangled up in the sweepstakes golf tourney at San Gabriel. The play was held Saturday and Sunday and Woods and Wade each finished 2 up on bogey in the final.

Bradford's Bread is BEST because nothing but No. 1 Dakota Hard Wheat Flour, pure sweet milk, pure vegetable oils and old-fashioned potato-and-hop yeast are used in its making; BEST because it is prepared under the watchful care of experts; BEST because it is impossible for foreign matter of any kind to enter it; BEST because science has devised no better bread-making machinery than ours; BEST because it is made in a bakery where cleanliness is the watchword which orders the conduct of every employee. All effects in embroidered dots, outlining insets of mousseline de sole, are a pronounced fad of the moment for evening gowns.

Velvet shoes are in very high favor, and are worn with stockings in brilliant hues, such as foliage green, with a black costume.

Small hats are not drawn over the head so far as they have been, but are now worn to show more of the wearer's face and hair.

Chenille, which for many years has been out of favor, has returned and promises to be more fashionable than it ever was in the old days.

Big, flat shapes, with oval crowns, having very little trimming, are the hats of the moment. Many are faced with eyelot embroidery in colors.

The combination of plain and printed linens and embroidered nets of lawn and tulle or organdy, are particularly prominent in the fashions of the moment.

Among mourning accessories black suede gloves are smarter than lace kid because of their dull finish, but the latter are quite correct, even when a long crepe veil is worn.

Embroideries are of rare beauty and richness; the bottom of a tunic may be elaborately embroidered in gold or silver beads, encrusted with cabu-chons of amethyst, topaz or turquoise.

For evening, with gowns of oriental style, silk or muslin thread stockings encrusted with gold or silver em-gleam with tiny precious stones.

Now many charming jackets of embroidery, made after the style of tailored jackets, with revers and collars of vivid-hued and printed linens, are worn with light gowns.

WOMEN'S WORK.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

BY SYDNEY FORD.

One pointed question—keen and clever—aimed at the speaker of the day by the president of the Woman's City Club—pricked a bubble which exploded in a burst of applause from 350 women, so loud and prolonged that it echoed and re-echoed through the big dining-room of Hotel Westminster yesterday, and so disconcerted the orator momentarily, that he had to take several sips of the good, pure, absolutely antiseptic and sterilized city water of Los Angeles before he could recover himself.

Dr. William Augustus Evans, for four years Health Commissioner of Chicago, was the speaker. He had been dilating on the fact that the death rate of our city is greater than that of grimy, dirty London, and not much better than that of Chicago, where children swarm in the streets. He had pointed out that this state of affairs is entirely inexcusable when we have no people living 1500 to the acre as in New York; when we have 50-foot lots, and the space not occupied by buildings is given to trees, and flowers, and grass; where neither the excess of animal or vegetable life creates disease; where we maintain the balance and the synthetic side is developed and yet in the face of all this—in this God-blessed city, with its glorious climate, such a high death rate! It was something appalling and disgraceful.

Women sat up and took notice, and fairly turned pale with apprehension as to our shortcomings till—during a pause when the good doctor looked at his watch—the president, Mrs. A. S. Longstreger, the wife of a Los Angeles physician herself, calmly asked: "Dr. Evans, don't you think that the reason our city is so high is because Chicago sends us so many sick people?"

After the applause and laughter had died away, the Chicago doctor gracefully fenced by remarking that the remainder of his talk would be concerning school sanitation; but before plunging into that phase of the matter, he paused long enough to observe that of course vital statistics could not be justly compared between cities without going into reasons, as a dozen different factors may enter into results. An admission which brought out another round of applause.

Going into school sanitation he told about the open air schools which are so common here, but are an innovation in Chicago where, owing to the curious freaks of the climate, entirely different conditions prevail. He declared that the comparatively low death rate of Chicago was due to the winds which sweep the city from the lake, creating a constant current of moving air. He said that he hoped the time is coming when the fresh air fad will choke the life out of the draught crank, and clear the breathing zone.

While this matter of closed windows and draught currents is vital in Chicago and other cities beyond the Rockies, of course it is of little personal interest to us who sleep in screen-enclosed porches year around and are constantly breathing God's good air.

Dr. Evans paid a fine compliment to Mrs. Ella Flag Young, the school superintendent of the Windy City, when he said that the best thing Chicago ever did was to place her in that position. He quoted this woman as expressing an opinion that when a child sits quietly at its desk in school, that child is sub-normal. A normal child will wriggle, and dance, and gesture, and encourage wriggling and allows wriggling space in the placing of desks in the school-room.

Shades of our grandmothers and old maid school ma'ams of half a century ago, who made Johnny stand on the floor half an hour if he sneezed behind his spelling book!

Mrs. Young, by the way, is a prospective speaker before the Woman's City Club when she comes this way from the N.E.A. convention in San Francisco.

Dr. Evans also explained to the club about the series of lectures to be given by Dr. W. C. Gorgas and the moving picture films to be shown, a full account of which was printed in The Times of last Thursday. He expressed amazement at the way Los Angeles women grow clubs, using the City Club as a sample.

"I am told," he said "that this club is but three weeks old. It started with fifty members, sprang to 350 at its second meeting had over 500 enrolled, and today—at its third session you had to put the lid on. This marvelous growth is very excellent proof that you were needed by the people of Los Angeles. The problems of community life are nothing more than the amplification of household life; the same principles apply equally to the one to the other. It is therefore natural and logical that women should be peculiarly fitted to work with the health officer."

Dr. Evans is a pleasing speaker and held the close attention of his hearers who detained him at the end with questions concerning proper sanitation.

The crowd was handled with ease and dispatch by the women officers of the club, who have had time to work out the problem of dealing with such large numbers. Each member re-

Women Singers Entertain.

The Dominant Club—a quartette of women's voices, composed of four well-known singers—Bertha Winslow Vaughn, Grace Millmore Silvers, Berseford Joy and Katherine Cameron Ebbert—delighted a large audience at the Ebbel Club yesterday afternoon, where they gave a splendid programme of music.

The quartette, I am told, plans to give recitals at various semi-social functions as well as concerts. Mrs. Silvers, who for several years was soprano soloist at the First Congregational Church, has recently returned from a stay of several months in New York, where she studied and enjoyed grand opera as presented in the metropolis.

There seems to be a distinct place in the musical world for the women's quartette. Only last week at a large and fashionable church wedding where both bride and groom were well-known musicians, one of the fascinating features of the ceremony was the singing of the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin by a quartette of women, who were prepared by the leading the bridal procession. The male quartette has long been an accepted fact, and now, all hail to the women's quartette!

Previous to the programme the officers for the ensuing year were installed.

"The Proof of the Pudding."

The Young Women's Home Missionary Society of the First Methodist Church will serve the luncheon today after the lecture of Mrs. Haffner at Barker, Mrs. C. H. Farnum, the president, will be assisted by Mrs. C. A. Parmelee, Otis Shaw, Ralph Watson, S. W. Trubill, Emory Warner, A. L. Parsons and Miss Olin.

These "sample" luncheons, every dish of which has been prepared by this apostle of scientific cooking, are served to prove to any possible skeptic that "the proof of the pudding is in the eating."

Coming Events.

The Boy's Heights Entre Nous Club holds the last meeting of the year tomorrow at the home of Mrs. Sue Reynolds, No. 2718 Eagle street.

A very pleasing programme has been arranged for the afternoon.

This afternoon the Drama Committee of the Friday Morning Club meets, and Mrs. Frank Gibson will read a play by the late Margaret Collier Graham, "A Furnished House."

The report of the Theater Committee will be given by Mrs. E. K. Foster and Miss Mary Foy.

The Young Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the First Methodist Church has issued invitations for an out-of-door meeting next Thursday at Sylvanore Park, where the form of a "shower" for Dr. Gertrude Taft, medical missionary at Ching-kiang, China. The young women are making up a box of Christmas gifts for Dr. Taft and her charges at that far-away mission post on the banks of the Yangtze.

THE THEATERS.

Mr. Hickman's own "Disqualified," given only at last Monday's premiere. "The Wrong Road" is a strong, convincing story of just what the title implies and gives all concerned ample opportunity for their histrionic talents.

Henry Stockbridge and Charlotte Bulmeret continue in their refreshing little skit, which for the most part is made up of airy perlage and Miss Bulmeret's charming, vivacious little self. She's got her share of the market in smiles, too. Some smile, here.

Robbedillo on the slack wire, Tom Waters in mono-planologue, and motion pictures of the recent Indianapolis Speedway races, serve to complete the bill.

"Merely Mary Ann" last night entered upon its second and last week at the Belasco. Last night's audience found much in the Belasco company's fine presentation to applaud. Marjorie Rambeau continues to win her audiences with the great charm with which she invests the role of Mary Ann.

The performance tonight has been taken by the Veteran Pipe and Drum Corps of the G. A. R. This is a benefit to secure funds to send a delegation to Rochester, where the National Encampment is to be held in an endeavor to secure next year's encampment for Los Angeles.

The programme at the Hyman this week is one of merit, as well as being pleasing in its diversity. Ward and Manning, in a singing and dancing act, show that they have the ability to present something different in their time-honored and well-known species of amusement. From the time they come on the stage until they leave, their act is catchy and interesting.

Ray and Ray, comedy singers, talkers and dancers, do a little of each, and all in such a manner that the audience keeps them working for a time far exceeding the ordinary length of their act. Mr. Ray has a clever make-up and shows great versatility. Miss Ray has a voice of sweetness. Their act, altogether, is most pleasing.

Schubert, "The Frog Man," has a distinctive novelty in his contortion act. It is an act that is "physically meritorious."

Little Miss Marguerite Roth, the singer of the bill, has a clear, high soprano voice. This is her first appearance in vaudeville, but with her past experience as a concert singer, she should become a favorite.

First-run pictures of high class, without flickering, and chosen with an eye to diversify the bill, and good acting, are shown. Hyman's orchestra, as usual, presents catchy numbers through the entire programme.

It is doubtful if a more pleasing programme has ever been presented at the College than that of this week. The programme of the entire bill is variety. While it is true that all on the bill sing, they in no way conflict with each other.

Billard and Albert, singers, dancers and talkers, vocalise a little, step a little and prattle a little, and they do all in such a manner that they are really the best seen at this house in some time.

Ted White, a newcomer into vaudeville, presents a number of popular songs in a pleasing manner.

Pretty Estelle Bird, operatic prima-donna, makes her first appearance in vaudeville. Miss Bird sings high-class operatic selections. Her voice shows much training and natural talent and her high tones are very clear and sweet and have unusual volume.

The usual exclusive first-run pictures and the Lillian May Lancaster orchestra complete this bill.

The hoodoo seems to have been removed from Luna Park. Long in a comparative state of disrepair, the buildings and amusement devices falling into ruin, its rehabilitation by the Thompson-Shaw company has restored it to popularity.

As at least approximate proof of this speedy restoration of public favor, the Luna Park ticket sellers' statements show that a trifle more than 120,000 persons have passed through the gates since the opening, Saturday, June 10, upon which occasion the attendance was 16,000. Such was the approval expressed that 100,000 visitors crowded the twelve acres of pleasure ground on the following day. But last Sunday was the real record—and hoodoo—breaker, for the attendance ran over 11,000.

An unusual and unique children's musical was offered Sunday evening at the Hollywood Hotel by the pupils of Mrs. Cocks. The evening was characterized "A Children's Symphony" and offered a "full orchestra" of children in which they played rattles, whistles, triangles, sleigh bells, etc., in a manner which brought out unexpected harmony. Following the opening portion which was interesting from its bizarre aspect there followed a classical programme. Children between eight and ten years of age played classical selections in a manner which was superbly entertaining.

The works of Bach, Chopin, Beethoven, Schumann, and Grieg were interpreted in a manner which is unusually associated with older and more finished musicians. The programme included selections by Lawrence Klein, Dorothy Lillian Wellborn, Mildred Robinson, Carlo Wyckoff, Ellnor Remick Warren, Lois Stratton, Marino Roth, Ynes Lowe, Esther Church and Rachel Ward.
